

III Astronomy School: the world of stars

L. Valdivielso¹

¹Centro de Estudios de Física del Cosmos de Aragón (CEFCA), Plaza San Juan 1, E-44001, Teruel, Spain

Abstract

The Astronomy School is an activity organized by the Centro de Estudios de Física del Cosmos de Aragón. It is celebrated every year at the end of the summer or the beginning of autumn with the purpose of bringing Astronomy and Astrophysics to the population from an educational and a training point of view. Its III Edition, held in October 2013, has been financed by the Spanish Astronomical Society and was focused on stellar physics. This contribution describes the School and the results.